Barbados EK Outdoor Power Supply

Overview

Does Barbados have a reliable electricity supply network?

While power outages and voltage fluctuations still occur, Barbados now has one of the region's most reliable and sustainable electricity supply networks. Currently, the Barbados Light & Power Company (BLPC) is responsible for providing electricity to the island, and most of its power comes from imported fossil fuels.

What kind of electricity does Barbados have?

Electricity in Barbados is 110 volts/50 cycles. There is a reliable electricity supply, with only the occasional outage. Standard plug types in Barbados are: If traveling from North America you should be able to use your appliances without any problems, however if travelling from UK & Europe you may need adapters and transformers.

How has Barbados improved its electricity supply?

Barbados, a small Caribbean island nation located in the easternmost part of the Lesser Antilles, has made great strides in improving its electricity supply network in recent years. The country has significantly reduced its reliance on imported fossil fuels and increased its renewable energy capacity.

Does Barbados have solar power?

The SEFB has successfully attracted investment in renewable energy projects, such as solar and wind power installations. As of 2021, Barbados has installed over 30 megawatts (MW) of solar photovoltaic (PV) capacity, which is equivalent to approximately 11% of the country's total electricity demand.

Why are electricity prices so high in Barbados?

The high cost of imported fuels and the limited availability of domestic energy resources mean that electricity prices in Barbados are relatively high compared to other countries in the region. This can be a burden for low-income households and businesses and may limit the uptake of renewable energy technologies.

Do Barbados hotels provide a hair dryer adapter?

Most Barbados hotels can provide adapters and transformers for hair dryers and other appliances - please check with your Barbados accommodation to be sure. Need a travel adapter?
