Djibouti Communication Digital Cluster Base Station

Overview

What is Djibouti Data Centre (DDC)?

The Djibouti Data Centre, DDC for short, is just a stone's throw away from Djibouti Telecom's international fibre optic cable landing station. It is East Africa's first tier 3 neutral data centre with direct access to all of the main international and regional cable systems linking the European, Middle Eastern, Asian and African markets.

Will Djibouti launch a carrier-neutral data center?

Wingu.Africa, in partnership with Djibouti ISP TO7 Network, is developing a carrier-neutral data center and carrier-neutral cable landing station in Djibouti. Details about the facility weren't shared, but it is expected to be ready for operation in early 2022.

Is Djibouti Telecom building a new cable landing station?

Djibouti Telecom has begun construction on a new Cable Landing Station in Djibouti City. The CLS will consist of three floors, with each floor having a 250 square meter (2,690 sq ft) equipment room. The 3rd floor is reportedly reserved for colocation. The facility is expected to be completed by April 2022.

Is Djibouti Telecom creating a digital platform?

Djibouti Telecom, under the direction of its Director General Mohamed Assoweh Bouh, is building a digital platform for the region. Wingu.Africa has partnered with Djibouti ISP TO7 Network to develop a carrier-neutral data center and carrier-neutral cable landing station.

Can Djibouti become a regional digital hub?

Djibouti now has 11 undersea cables, making it one of the best-connected countries in Africa and with its data centre, it is well on its way to becoming a regional digital hub. In January, the Djibouti Africa Regional Express 1

(DARE1) undersea cable, which links the countries on Africa's east coast, made landfall at Siesta Beach in Djibouti.

What are the telecommunications like in Djibouti?

Telecommunications in Djibouti are overseen by the Ministry of Communication & Culture. Telephone facilities in the city of Djibouti are defined as 'adequate', with microwave radio relay connections to outlying areas. The Djibouti Telecom headquarters is located in Djibouti City.
