Irish company that makes lithium batteries for energy storage

Overview

Which battery energy storage systems are available in Ireland?

The Kylemore Battery Energy Storage System in Dublin went into operation in 2023 and has the capability of providing 30MW of fast-acting storage. The South Wall Battery Energy Storage System went live in 2023 and has the capability of providing 30MW of fast-acting energy storage.

How many MW of battery storage capacity are there in Ireland?

We currently have more than 300MWs of battery storage capacity in operation in Ireland, making it one of the largest battery portfolios in Europe. We plan to develop a pipeline of large scale battery projects, as well as additional renewable enabling technologies.

Who is building Ireland's first four-hour battery energy storage system?

Energy company Statkraft is to build Ireland's first four-hour battery energy storage system (BESS). The 20 MW BESS will be supplied by Fluence, the global company that specialises in utility-scale BESS and services. The BESS will be co-located with Statkraft's 55.8 MW Cushaling Wind Farm in Co. Offaly, currently under construction.

How long will a Cushaling battery last in Ireland?

Statkraft said its Cushaling BESS is designed to provide 20 MW for up to four hours, adding that most grid-scale batteries in Ireland range from 30 minutes to two hours' energy storage capacity. Construction of the battery project is expected to be completed by late 2024. The Cushaling battery is Statkraft's third to be developed in Ireland.

Who owns 200MW battery energy storage in Dublin?

Subject to the receipt of competition approval, VPI will be the majority shareholder in 200MW, 120MWh, of battery energy storage across two existing sites west of Dublin.

Is battery storage a key part of Ireland's energy transition?

Battery storage is a critical part of Ireland's energy transition and I welcome new investors who are committed to delivering our ambitious 2030 targets.”
Jorge Pikunic, CEO of VPI – “I am excited about the role VPI will play in supporting the Irish Government's Climate Action Plan.
