Do I need a power adapter for Costa Rica?

You might be asking yourself, “What plug do I need for Costa Rica?

” The good news for American travelers is that these outlets are the same as we use at home, meaning it won’t be necessary to purchase a power adapter for Costa Rica. However, most other nationalities will need to purchase one to charge their devices.

What type of power outlet does Costa Rica use?

See our product selection criteria and guidelines here. Which power outlets do they use in Costa Rica?

Like most countries in Central America, Costa Rica uses the A/B Type power outlet, which is made up of two horizontally aligned rectangular pins. It’s the same outlet you will find throughout North America.

What are the different types of power plugs in Costa Rica?

In Costa Rica, there are two types of power plugs and outlets: Type A and Type B. Both types are used in airports, hotels, restaurants, etc., but they differ in terms of shape. Type A: Type A plugs have two flat prongs on either side of the plug.

Where can I find a travel adapter in Costa Rica?

Find travel adapters on Amazon. What Voltage and Frequency Are Used in Costa Rica?

In Costa Rica, the standard voltage is 120 V and the frequency of electricity is 60 Hz. If you’re traveling from another country and your electronic device isn’t compatible with Costa Rica’s voltage, it may not work properly.

Where can I find a voltage converter in Costa Rica?

You can find voltage converters on Amazon, or at your local electronics store. If you would like to bring your laptop, tablet, camera, or other electronic devices with you to Costa Rica, it's important to check their voltage and frequency before traveling. If your electronic device isn't compatible with Costa Rica voltage, it may not work properly.

Do you need a charger in Costa Rica?

Lipstick-Sized Portable Charger Whether you're snapping a selfie with a Mantled Howler or on the hunt for the best reggae bar in Puerto Viejo, you're going to need a fully charged device to enjoy a hassle-free travel experience in Costa Rica. And the best way to ensure you never run flat is to keep a lipstick-sized charger in your pocket or purse.
