Why are foreign inverters entering Korean PV market?

As the volume of Korean PV market increases, many foreign inverter players like Chinese companies and European makers have been breaking into Korean PV market by establishing sales points and service networks in Korea. On the other hand, Korean government is tightening up the criteria of safety standards related with inverters.

What is the on-water PV potential in Korea?

In addition, K-Water can utilize 8% of the dams, which sums up to 3,7 GW. Therefore, the total on-water PV potential in Korea is estimated to be about 9,7 GW. Floating PV gets 1,5 REC multipliers under current RPS scheme and thus is quite attractive to the developers.

How much electricity does Korea need in 2023?

In Korea, 25 obligators (electricity utility companies with electricity generation capacity of 500 MW or above) as of April, 2023 are required to supply 13% of their electricity from NRE sources by 2023, starting from 2% in 2012. The PV set-aside requirement was set to be 1,5 GW by 2015, and the goal was surpassed.

How to promote PV deployment in Korea?

Korea's current policy structure to promote PV deployment can be categorized into four areas: 1) subsidies for installation, 2) incentives, 3) obligatory measures, and 4) infrastructure building.

Why are PV systems combining with ESS so popular in Korea?

In Korea, PV systems combined with ESS were previously spotlighted, because the system has been awarded with higher subsidies, multiplied REC (Renewable Energy Certificate) values. However, the systems combining PV and ESS recently suffered from many unspecified fire accidents.

How much electricity does jungma Island have?

Similarly, PV power of 120 kW and wind power of 30 kW were installed in Jungma island, which will provide 388 000 kWh electricity annually. 1 200 kWh size ESS (Energy Storage System) was also installed, and the diesel power is now serving as the supplementary power for the island.
