Overview

Does de Rijke group offer container transport in Belgium?

For many years, De Rijke Group has offered container transport in Belgium. To do this, we use an extensive fleet with which we transport sea containers from the Port of Antwerp to your final destination in the Benelux, Germany and France. So, whether you want your materials transported to Bremen or to France: it's all possible.

Why is the port of Antwerp important for container transport Belgium?

This makes the Port of Antwerp an important port for container transport Belgium, but also for other countries. Indeed, it is a great advantage that the port is so well located for other forms of transportation. If you are looking for container transport Belgium, you need look no further than De Rijke Group.

How are containers transported in Antwerp?

To make quick handling of large volumes possible, the vast majority of containers shipped by barge to the company's own terminals and associated warehouses after having been processed at the Port of Antwerp. Containers intended for export can also be loaded at the company's sites and be transported to the port by barge.

What types of containers are available?

Containers are available in various types, models and dimensions. There are containers of 8ft, 20ft, 40ft or 45ft. Whatever you want to store or transport, we have the right container for you. Would you like to know more about the possibilities or do you have a question?

Then contact us. We are happy to assist you for tailor-made advice.

What is a shipping container?

A shipping container is more than a steel box - it is the solution for storage, transportation or custom projects. Whether you want to buy or rent a new or used container, our team will help you every step of the way to find the perfect solution. Choose from a wide range of high-quality shipping containers in a variety of sizes and configurations.

What is the largest port in Belgium?

The largest port in Belgium is Antwerp and, after Rotterdam, it is the second largest port in Europe. So, there is a lot of activity in this port. The port of Antwerp is connected to the North Sea via the Western Scheldt. The port is located deep inland, making the distances for road and rail transportation smaller.
